Section 4: Matters for Discussion

4.1 Membership Status and Future Advertising/Events

So far this year, we have 29 members across our 4 membership type as 22 annual students, 5 annual non students and 1 each for the extended types. This is tied with last year but still a massive drop compared to 2023 where we had 100 members.

A change to our advertising and events for the remainder of this year and next year must be discussed to correct this.

4.2 TUSA/ATO Tax Changes

Around this time last year we were in discussion with TUSA about their in progress changes as a result of ATO tax reporting changes for non for profits. Later on we agreed to have our ABN cancelled but this has still not occurred and still may not be in our best interest as we try to resolve possible legal issues with our projects.

4.3 Netbank Address

We recieved an email from TUSA that our paper statements are going to the wrong address and so must be correct which requires a document to be emailed to them containing the corrected address and the signatures of two current bank signatories.

4.4 Centenary 140 Unavailability

At the end of the semester, UTAS will be renevating Cent 140 into a teaching space which means we have to find another room for the forceable future. Recently we checked out Centenary 355 which while much smaller appears suitable.

4.5 Membership Fees

Currently annual memberships are $$5$ for students and $$10$ for assocates while extended memberships are $$5$ more in each case. There has been some discussion about increasing these but we have not decided the exact amount.

One of the amendments proposes adding $$2.5$ to all four types, but, this can be changed.

4.6 Constitution Amendments Appendix C

The 2024-2025 Committee has prepared a number of possible amendments for the Programming Club constitution that we now need to vote on.

4.7 Committee Structure Appendix D

A part of our annual elections is to update the position descriptions for regular offices for the following year. This year's descriptions have been included for reference.

4.8 Office Elections

Nominations are called for the following offices for 2025-2026: President, Treasurer, Secretary, Education, Events, Legal(if amendment is accepted), Marketing, Technical Support and up to four (4) General Members.
Additionally, Regular offices may be subdivided by campus/region if there is interest and must be included in the position description document.

As of 20251009, the following self nominations have been made:
President: Mars(need legal name)
Treasurer: Lachlan McKay
Secretary: Cameron Munro
Education Officer: Tran (Luke), Hau Duc
Events Officer: Md Rifat Bin Yusuf
Marketing Officer: Mars(need legal name)
Technical Support Officer: Joshua Wierenga
General Member Officer: Kentaro Watts

Multiple people running for the same position is fine as we can have a vote.

4.9 Bank Signatories

The new executive officers are required to act as bank signatories for the Club's bank account.

4.10 Committee Handover

The outgoing committee is to start transferring assets to the incoming committee and inform them about practices/traditions as soon as possible. This process must be completed within four (4) weeks, at which point the incoming committee gain their new offices but they may be decide to take over sooner if desired.

4.11 Extended Memberships

One the AGM has concluded, the extended 2025-2026 memberships must be made available for sale.

Section 5: Matters for Noting

5.1 President's Report

Appendix D

See attachment.

5.2 Treasurer's Report

Overview for 11th October 2024 (after AGM) till 13th October 2025 (day before AGM)

Income:	$844.47
Expenses:	$973.39
Final Outcome:	-$128.92
Initial bank balance:	$1,390.70
Final bank balance:	$1,261.78
Bank balance difference:	-$128.92

[redacted]

Ideally we would end this year in the same position as last year but $128.92 is worth it for the activities we were able to run this year as well as the new assets we were able to obtain like the usb monitor. Additionally with two grant requests to TUSA and STEM Ball profits being processed soon we should end the year higher.

5.3 Subcommittee and Other Reports (if applicable)

It will also begin a general discussion on any Programming Club's traditions and advice on what went well during the year and what could be improved.

Section 4: Matters for Noting

4.1 President's Report

This year has been crazy for us, with the previous committee throwing us in at the deep end as they were too busy at the end of last year to help out. Then, there was an unscheduled meeting to elect a new committee as soon as the university year started. This ensured we had to figure things out as we went, like the mandatory re-affiliation in March, which we were informed about just weeks from the deadline. Then, on to event and grant applications, which kept us on our toes as we tried to run events of interest to our members, as none of us were prepared for the amount of admin required. On that front, we have spent most of our time this year helping students gain experience programming, ideally in a different way from what they would learn while completing a UTAS course and, hopefully, complementary. We have tried to do this via our weekly meetups both on campus and online by focussing on running a number of club projects that members can work on to get more comfortable with working on collaborative projects. These include a Discord bot and a classic text adventure. When we were not busy with projects, we worked with other clubs to run collaborative events, like the games nights we ran with MAPS earlier in the year and the STEM ball, which we are happy was able to run again, and hope it can continue to happen for years to come! And, of course, we can not forget to thank TUSA for providing grants, which made both club events and the recent stem ball possible.

Appendix E: President's Report

This report was submitted for the 14 October 2025 Programming Club Annual General Meeting

2025 PC President's AGM Report

Kentaro Watts (PC President)

Dear Programming Club members,

Thank you all for another year of the Programming Club. This year, we have had a varied line of events:

- Programming Club Game Jam 2025 "Better Late Than Never" (18–21 July)
- 2 Joint board game nights with the Maths and Physics Society (15 April and 19 August)
- STEM Ball with the Chemistry Club, the Agriculture Society, the Biology Society, the Geology Society, and the Maths and Physics Society
- Our weekly meetup events

At the beginning of the year, we redesigned our club logo and website and were able to make some new club merchandise in time for Clubs and Societies Day in Semester 1. The new website has been used since to display the club's achievements.

Over the winter semester break, Programming Club members mentored groups of visiting Korean students through an AI hackathon. This program was a success, and we are grateful to the School of ICT for allowing us to contribute to the visiting students' experience. Around the same time in July, we also held our own game jam over four days with some high-quality submissions.

As for the STEM Ball, the RACV Hotel turned out to be a good-sized venue. With six clubs and societies collaborating, we were able to fill the venue, so I don't see reason to include any more groups. I hope that the Programming Club continues to participate in STEM Ball.

Our board game night collaboration events with the Maths and Physics Society throughout the year were a success with great attendance. The Programming Club has also run weekly gatherings where members have made progress on some of the club's projects, including our multi-function Discord bot, a detailed text adventure game, and a new club website.

Earlier this year at ACS Education, Careers and Technology Summit 2025 (EdCAT), we were pleased to see a good number of students attending. Luke, one of our members, was the MC for part of the event.

And of course, we cannot forget the renaming of the "Centenary Courtyard" outside Ciano's on Level 1 of the Centenary Building to the Courtyard of the Programming Club! [For people from the future looking back, this was me joking about US President Trump renaming the Gulf of Mexico to the Gulf of America.]

We have currently 29 members as per Rubric, which TUSA has announced that they will be moving to an in-house replacement system, with more technical details to be disclosed soon. Despite our numbers on paper, the number of members that regularly attend meetups is much less. Figuring out how to attract more people or finding new ways to engage members will be a key task for the next Committee. For our part, we surveyed new members on preferred times for the meetup event and then changed the event time to suit, only for a few new members to arrive and then stop coming. Despite our low active numbers, the Club has still represented itself in the aforementioned events, of which we should be proud. Besides, we are still here, which is more than can be said of the ICT Society!

However, next year's committee will need to take more drastic action if our Club is to meaningfully grow again. We will be going into our third year post-Bella, which is both a challenge and an opportunity: our numbers are small, but there will not be a better time to experiment more with the club. I am not suggesting chaos: we need to look at what successful clubs do right, including "taking inspiration" from successful event formats and seeing how they could work for us. We are the School of ICT's only subject-related society, perhaps we could better use this relationship.

I wish to thank other TUSA, other Clubs, and external groups for supporting and collaborating with the Programming Club over the last year. It has meant a lot for us to be able to have done what we did, and I hope we brought value to your events.

I wish to also thank the club Committee, without whom none of this would have happened.

Thank you to our secretary Cameron Munro who has kept meeting minutes and drafted agendas throughout the year. Through the constitutional changes and club interactions with other bodies, we have greatly valued from the details records of our meetings and decisions.

Thank you to our southern technical support officer Joshua Wierenga, who has run our weekly meetup events and managed our club projects. As the most senior active member, you have been an indispensable part of our Committee.

Thank you to our treasurer Lachlan McKay.

Thank you to our northern technical support officer, marketing officer, and general members. One of our general members Tran (Luke), Hau Duc has done some work this year (picking up from where I started) exploring how the club could share copyright over project code with individual members. Although we did not get a satisfactory result, this was still important work.

Thank you for letting me serve as your president. I am grateful to have contributed to and helped shape our initiatives throughout the year, and to be able to wind down with other PC members at our meetups.

Finally, we will soon be saying goodbye to this room, Centenary 140. As the club has discussed previously, this room will be used for classes next year, so the Programming Club's new home will be a much smaller meeting room a few floors higher up with a much nicer view. I hope the Club enjoys its new space.

Thank you!
